Statement

I certify that I have given accurate and complete information on this application and understand that any falsification or omission of information will constitute grounds for immediate dismissal upon discovery thereof. I further understand that any employment given me is for an unspecified duration and is terminable at will by either party. If employed, I will abide by the rules of the Company to search my locker, desk, personal items and/or vehicle at it's discretion, at any time, on the job-site during work hours and understand that failure to cooperate with such a search, may result in termination of my employment. I agree to submit to a physical examination and/or drug test, if required by the Company. I further authorize the company to make any job related inquiries it deems appropriate of my previous employers and/or references and to make inquiries related to my credit, driving and conviction records. I hereby authorize all previous employers, references, physicians, clinics, medical laboratories and reporting agencies to release any and all revelant job-related and/or medical information to CraneWorks upon request. I understand that my employment depends upon my ability to comply with the provisions of the Immigration Reform Control Act of 1986.
